 2           TO THE CLERK OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 3           FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA AND TO PLAINTIFF
 4           JESSICA CANTER AND HER ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

5           PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on this date, based on the allegations of 6 plaintiff Jessica Canter's ("Plaintiff") Complaint, Defendants DreamWorks
 7 Animation LLC ("DreamWorks Animation") and DreamWorks Animation SKG, 8 Inc. (collectively "Defendants") hereby remove the above-entitled action from the 9 Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles to the 10 United States District Court for the Central District of California Western Division
 11 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1441, and 1446. Defendants' removal of this 12 action is based on the following:

13           1.       On or about December 13, 2013, Plaintiff filed a Complaint entitled 14 Jessica Canter v. DreamWorks Animation LLC; DreamWorks Animation SKG, 15 Inc.; EPSG Management Services, LLC; Entertainment Partners; and Does 1
 16 through 100 et al., Case No. BC530402, in the Superior Court of the State of 17 California, for the County of Los Angeles (the "State Court Action").

18           2.       DreamWorks Animation and DreamWorks Animation SKG, Inc. were 19 served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint on January 3, 2014, which are 20 attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Jorja A. Cirigliana ("Cirigliana Decl.")
 21 Along with the Summons and Complaint, Plaintiff also served a Civil Case Cover
 22 Sheet, Civil Case Cover Sheet Addendum and Statement of Location, Notice of 23 Case Assignment, Voluntary Efficient Litigation Stipulations, and Motion for 24 Peremptory Disqualification; which are attached as Exhibits 2, 3, 4, 5, 6
 25 respectfully, to the Declaration of Jorja A. Cirigliana. Accordingly, a complete
 26 copy of all process, pleadings, and orders served upon Defendants in the State
 27 Court Action are attached as Exhibits to the Declaration of Jorja A. Cirigliana, as 28 required by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a). A Case Management Conference has been

1 ordered in the State Court Action, however Defendants were not served with the 2 notice thereof. Nevertheless, Defendants have attached the notice hereto as Exhibit
 3 7 to the Declaration of Jorja A. Cirigliana.

4       3. Removing Defendants are informed and believe, and on that basis
 5 allege, that no “Doe” defendants have been served with a Summons or the 6 Complaint. Accordingly, all named and served defendants have consented to and 7 joined in this Notice of Removal. Cirigliana Decl. ¶ 13, see also Proctor v. Vishay
 8 Intertechnology Inc., 584 F.3d 1208, 1225 (9th Cir. 2009) (“One defendant’s 9 timely removal notice containing an averment of the other defendants’ consent and 10 signed by an attorney of record is sufficient [to satisfy requirement that all served 11 defendants join removal.”).

Removal is Timely

12       4. This Notice of Removal is being filed within thirty (30) days after the 13 service on Defendants of the Complaint (January 3, 2014) and, therefore, is timely 14 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b).

Federal Question Jurisdiction

15       5. This action is a civil action of which this Court has original 16 jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, as it is an action arising under federal law, as 17 set forth below. This action therefore may be removed to this Court by Defendants 18 pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a) and (b).

Preemption by Labor Management Relations Act

20       6. Plaintiff’s Complaint alleges the following causes of action against 21 each of the Defendants: (1) violation of the California Family Rights Act
 22 (“CFRA”) [Gov. Code § 12945.2, et seq.]; (2) Interference with CFRA Rights; (3)
 23 Unlawful Retaliation in Violation of FEHA and CFRA [Gov. Code §§ 12940 and 24 12945, et seq.]; (4) Violation of Pregnancy Disability Leave Law (“PDLL”) [Gov.
 25 Code § 12945, et seq.]; (5) Gender/Pregnancy Discrimination in Violation of 26 FEHA [Gov. Code § 12940, et seq.]; (6) Failure to Prevent Discrimination and

1 Retaliation [Gov. Code § 12940, et seq.]; (7) Wrongful Discharge in Violation of 2 Public Policy for Exercising CFRA and PDLL Rights; and (8) Intentional Infliction
 3 of Emotional Distress.

4       7.     Although Plaintiff pleads her Eighth Cause of Action for intentional
 5 infliction of emotional distress as a state law claim, the claim is preempted
 6 pursuant to Section 301(a) of the Labor Management Relations Act (“LMRA”), 29
 7 U.S.C. § 141 et seq.

8       8.     Section 301(a) of the LMRA provides:

9              Suits for violation of contracts between an employer and 10             a labor organization representing employees in an 11             industry affecting commerce as defined in this chapter, or 12             between any such labor organizations, may be brought in 13             any district court of the United States having jurisdiction 14             of the parties, without respect to the amount in 15             controversy or without regard to the citizenship of the 16             parties.

17 29 U.S.C. § 185(a).

18       9.     As applied, Section 301(a) wholly preempts any and all purported 19 state law causes of action by an employee concerning a dispute over the terms and 20 conditions of employment if that employee’s employment is governed by a 21 collective bargaining agreement and the claim requires interpretation or application
 22 of the terms of the collective bargaining agreement. See Firestone v. S. Cal. Gas 23 Co., 281 F. 3d 801, 802 (9th Cir. 2002) (“a state law claim is preempted [by 24 Section 301] if it necessarily requires the court to interpret an existing provision of 25 a collective bargaining agreement (CBA) that ‘can reasonably be said to be 26 relevant to the resolution of the dispute.’[Citation]”); see Lingle v. Norge Div. of
Magic Chef, Inc., 486 U.S. 399, 405-06, 108 S. Ct. 1877, 100 L. Ed. 410 (1988) 27 (“[I]f the resolution of a state-law claim depends upon the meaning of a collective-

1 bargaining agreement, the application of state law . . . is pre-empted and federal
 2 labor-law principles . . . must be employed to resolve the dispute.”); Hyles v.
 3 Mensing, 849 F.2d 1213, 1215 (9th Cir. 1988) (even if no federal question appears
 4 on the face of the complaint, removal is proper because state action was really a 5 claim for breach of the collective bargaining agreement and thus preempted by §
 6 301); Sheeran v. Gen. Elec. Co., 593 F.2d 93, 96-97 (9th Cir. 1979) (“Appellants
 7 argue . . . that in their complaint they asserted no basis for § 301(a) jurisdiction --
 8 that they are not claiming a violation of any collective bargaining agreement as a
 9 basis for their claims. . . . It is undisputed, however, that the rights and benefits
 10 sought by . . . union employees were the subject of collective bargaining . . . . We 11 conclude that the action was properly removed.”).

Collective Bargaining Agreement at Issue

10. DreamWorks Animation is an employer employing employees in an 11 industry affecting commerce, as defined by Section 301 of the Labor Management
 12 Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. 141, et seq., (the “LMRA”). Plaintiff was an “employee”
 13 of DreamWorks Animation, as that term is defined by the LMRA. DreamWorks
 14 Animation SKG, Inc. is the publicly held parent company of DreamWorks
 15 Animation.
 16

17. The Animation Guild and Affiliated Optical Electronic and Graphic
 18 Arts Local 839, a branch of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage 19 Employees and the Moving Pictures Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the 20 United States, Its Territories and Canada, (the “Union”), is a “labor organization” 21 as defined by the LMRA. At all times relevant to the Complaint, the Union was 22 the exclusive bargaining representative of Plaintiff during her employment.
 23

24. At all times relevant to the Complaint, the applicable collective 25 bargaining agreement between DreamWorks Animation and the Union was the 26 “Producer and Animation Guild and Affiliated Optical Electronic and Graphic Arts
 27 Local # 839 and International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and Moving 28

1 Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the United States, Its Territories
 2 and Canada," for the term August 1, 2012 to July 31, 2015 ("the Agreement") (a
 3 copy of which is attached to the Declaration of Jorja A. Cirigliana as Exhibit 8).
 4 The Agreement is a "contract" between a "labor organization" and an "employer"
 5 as those terms are defined by LMRA § 301(a).<sup>1</sup>

6       13. At all times relevant to the Complaint, Plaintiff's employment with 7 DreamWorks Animation was governed by the terms and conditions of the 8 Agreement.

9                   Intentional Inflection of Emotional Distress Claim is Preempted

10       14. Plaintiff's Eighth Cause of Action for intentional infliction of 11 emotional distress depends upon or requires interpretation of the Agreement, and 12 therefore, is preempted by Section 301 of the LRMA.

13       15. To sustain her claim for intentional infliction of emotional distress,
 14 Plaintiff must show "(1) extreme and outrageous conduct by [DreamWorks 15 Animation] with the intention of causing, or reckless disregard of the probability of 16 causing, emotional distress; (2) the plaintiff's suffering severe or extreme 17 emotional distress; and (3) actual and proximate causation of the emotional distress
 18 by the defendant's outrageous conduct." Perugini v. Safeway Stores, Inc., 935
 19 F.2d 1083, 1087 (9th Cir. 1991). Outrageous conduct is conduct that "is so 20 extreme as to exceed all bounds of that usually tolerated in a civilized community."
 21 Id.

22       16. Plaintiff alleges that DreamWorks Animation's alleged "failure to 23 provide Plaintiff with her protected leave and/or reasonable accommodation" and

 25       <sup>1</sup> During her employment, Plaintiff's services were engaged by DreamWorks
 26 Animation pursuant to two separate employment agreements, one dated April 11,
 27 2007 and the other dated May 7, 2011. The Agreement was expressly incorporated 28 into and made a part of each employment agreement. A true and correct copy of the April 11, 2007 employment agreement is attached as Exhibit 9, and a true and correct copy of the May 7, 2011 employment agreement is attached as Exhibit 10 to the Declaration of Jorja A. Cirigliana.

1 termination of Plaintiff's employment "on the basis of her pregnancy and protected
 2 leave" was "extreme and outrageous, exceeding the bounds of decency normally 3 tolerated in a civilized society." Cirigliana Decl. Ex. 1, Complaint ¶ 98; see also 4 Complaint ¶ 99 ("Defendants engaged in this conduct knowing it would cause
 5 Plaintiff extreme emotional distress or with conscious disregard of the likelihood 6 of such an outcome."); ¶ 103 ("The above-described acts of Defendants...were 7 intentional, willful and malicious and done in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's
 8 rights, safety and well-being and with the intent to vex, injure and annoy 9 Plaintiff....").

10       17. Adjudication of Plaintiff's Eighth Cause of Action for intentional 11 infliction of emotional distress requires the court to determine whether 12 DreamWorks Animation's alleged conduct was "outrageous" or "was justified
 13 under the terms of [the Agreement]." Cook v. Lindsay Olive Growers, 911 F.2d 14 233, 239-40 (9th Cir. 1990) ("Because Cook's emotional distress claim arises out
 15 of [his] discharge and the defendants' conduct...leading up to it [and] will require 16 us to decide whether [his] discharge was justified under the terms of the collective 17 bargaining agreement [citation] it is preempted by § 301." (internal quotation
 18 marks omitted)); Perugini, 935 F.2d at 1088 ("To the extent that Perugini's
 19 [intentional infliction of emotional distress] claim is based on Safeway's refusal to 20 provide light duty, her claim is barred by section 301(a)."); see also Miller v.
 21 ATT&T Network Sys., 850 F.2d 543, 551 (9th Cir. 1988) ("[W]e cannot assume 22 that behavior violating the antidiscrimination statute is automatically outrageous
 23 for purposes of an emotional distress claim. Because the emotional distress claim 24 requires consideration of reasonableness of AT&T's behavior, which in turn could 25 depend on whether that behavior violated the collective bargaining agreement, the 26 claim is preempted.").

27       18. Plaintiff's intentional infliction of emotional distress claim arises out
 28 of her alleged termination pursuant to a layoff from DreamWorks Animation.

1 Complaint ¶¶ 22, 51, 70, 78, 97 (incorporating all previous allegations by reference
2 into claim for intentional infliction of emotional distress). Layoffs are specifically
3 governed by Article 12 of the Agreement which requires application of certain 4 principles of seniority.

5       18.1 Specifically, the relevant portion of Article 12 provides:

6                     Article 12. Seniority

7                     ***

8                     In hiring, layoffs and recalls, the principle of seniority
9                     shall apply as set forth below, except that where the merit 10                  and ability of one individual is, in the sole discretion of 11                  the Producer, superior to that of another individual, 12                  Producer's judgment shall prevail unless the Union can 13                  demonstrate that Producer did not reach its decision
14                  fairly and reasonably and without illegal discrimination
15                  of any kind. The concept of merit and ability includes an 16                  employee's work performance in relationship to the 17                  Producer's reasonable production standards, qualitative 18                  or quantitative. The principle of promotions from within 19                  the organization is hereby acknowledged, but this 20                  principle or the seniority principle shall not prevent the 21                  Producer from obtaining new talent.

22                     Cirigliana Decl. Ex. 8, p. 78, Agreement, Article 12.

23        18.2 Section 12 of the Agreement further provides:

24                     4. If layoffs in personnel are effected, such layoffs shall 25                  be made in conformity with the principle of seniority
26                  provided merit and ability are relatively equal in the sole 27

1                   discretion of the Producer pursuant to the preamble of 2                   this Article 12. The Producer shall in all events exercise
 3                   said discretion fairly and reasonably and without illegal
 4                   discrimination of any kind.

5                   Cirigliana Decl. Ex. 8, p. 79, Agreement, Article 12.

6                   19. Plaintiff's intentional infliction of emotional distress claim also arises 7                   out of the alleged denial of her leave of absence, including as an 8                   "accommodation," and failure to reinstate her after a leave of absence. Cirigliana
 9                   Decl. Ex. 1, Complaint ¶¶ 22, 40, 69, 78, 97 (incorporating all previous allegations 10                  by reference into claim for intentional infliction of emotional distress). Leaves of 11                  absence are specifically governed by Article 17 of the Agreement which provides:

12                   The Producer may grant a leave of absence with or 13                   without pay to any employee for a period of up to six (6)
 14                   months. Based on the operational needs of Producer, 15                   such leave may be extended by Producer in increments of 16                   up to thirty (30) days.

17                   Cirigliana Decl. Ex. 8, pp. 87-88, Agreement, Article 17.

18                   20. Whether DreamWorks Animation's alleged conduct was "extreme 19                   and outrageous" requires interpretation of the Agreement's Seniority and Leave of 20                   Absence provisions "to judge the appropriateness of [DreamWorks Animation's]
 21                   behavior." Perugini, 935 F. 2d at 1088; id. ("We can determine whether Safeway
 22                   was acting consistently with its duties under the CBA in refusing to reassign
 23                   Perugini only by interpreting these [CBA] provisions."); Cook, 911 F.2d at 239
 24                   ("Whether LOG's actions leading to Cook's transfer and discharge were 25                   outrageous depends on the interpretation of the CBA's provision for 'just cause'
 26                   discharge, and whether acts that could lead to the loss of seniority rights could be 27                   used as grounds for discharge."); see also Miller, 850 F. 2d at 550 ("Because the 28                   [intentional infliction of emotional distress claim] requires inquiry into the

1 appropriateness of the defendant's behavior, the terms of the CBA can become
 2 relevant in evaluating whether the defendant's behavior was reasonable. Actions
 3 that the collective bargaining agreement permits might be deemed reasonable in 4 virtue of the fact the CBA permits them.""). Thus, Plaintiff's claim for intentional
 5 infliction of emotional distress is preempted under Section 301(a) of the LMRA.

6       21. Plaintiff cannot escape the sweeping preemption of Section 301 of the 7 LMRA by her "artfully pleading" her claim for intentional infliction of emotional
 8 distress. The fact that Plaintiff does not reference the Agreement in her Complaint
 9 does not prevent preemption. Stallcop v. Kaiser Foundation Hosps., 820 F.2d
 10 1044, 1048 (9th Cir. 1987) (where the complaint does not reveal that employment 11 is governed by collective bargaining agreement, "[u]nder the [artful pleading] 12 doctrine, the court may investigate the true nature of the plaintiff's allegations; if 13 the complaint actually raises a section 301 claim on the collective bargaining 14 agreement, even though it is framed under state law, the claim is preempted."); see 15 also Hyles v. Mensing, 849 F.2d 1213, 1215 (9th Cir. 1988) ("Plaintiffs may not 16 avoid removal by 'artfully pleading' their claims to omit references to preemptive 17 federal law."); id. at 1216 (where the allegations of a plaintiff's state claims require 18 analysis of the rights and obligations of the employer and employees under a 19 collective bargaining agreement, those claims are preempted by Section 301 of the 20 LMRA); Sheeran v. General Elec. Co., 593 F.2d 93, 96-97 (9th Cir. 1979), cert.
 21 denied, 444 U.S. 868, 100 S.Ct. 143, 62 L.Ed.2d 93 (1979) ("Appellants argue . . .
 22 that in their complaint they asserted no basis for §301(a) jurisdiction [,] that they 23 are not claiming a violation of any collective bargaining agreement as a basis for 24 their claims. . . . It is undisputed, however, that the rights and benefits sought by . . .
 25 union employees were the subject of collective bargaining. . . . We conclude that 26 the action was properly removed.").

27       22. Defendants therefore allege that Plaintiff's Eighth Cause of Action for 28 intentional infliction of emotional distress is preempted and supplanted by the

1 federal law of labor relations in Section 301 of the LMRA. This Court accordingly
 2 has federal question jurisdiction over this case. See U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1337.
 3 This action is therefore removable to this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441(a)
 4 and (b), and 1446(a) and (b).

5 Supplemental Jurisdiction

6 23. To the extent that the other causes of action in the Complaint are not
 7 preempted by the LMRA and removable, any non-preempted cause of action falls
 8 within the Court's supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1267. Any 9 such non-preempted cause of action in the Complaint arises out of the same 10 common nucleus of operative facts as the preempted eighth cause of action for 11 intentional infliction of emotional distress. Indeed, Plaintiff specifically bases her
 12 claim for intentional infliction of emotional distress on DreamWorks Animation's 13 alleged failure to provide protected leave and reasonable accommodation and 14 alleged termination of Plaintiff on the basis of pregnancy and protected leave, as 15 set forth in Plaintiff's first through seventh causes of action. Cirigliana Decl. Ex.
 16 1, Complaint ¶98; see generally Complaint; see also, Jackson v. S. Cal. Gas Co., 17 881 F.2d 638, 642 (9th Cir. 1989) (all claims that arose from conduct that allegedly 18 resulted in the plaintiff's constructive discharge "fall within the scope of pendent 19 jurisdiction"); Young v. Anthony's Fish Grottos, Inc., 830 F.2d 993, 999 (9th Cir.
 20 1987). Moreover, considerations of judicial economy, convenience and fairness to 21 the litigants require that all of the causes of action alleged in the Complaint be tried 22 in one forum. Brady v. Brown, 51 F.3d 810, 816 (9th Cir. 1995) ("The decision to 23 retain jurisdiction over state law claims is within the district court's discretion, 24 weighing factors such as economy, convenience, fairness, and comity."); see
 25 United Mine Workers v. Gibbs, 383 U.S. 715, 725-726, 86 S.Ct., 1130, 16 L.Ed.2d 26 218 (1966) (pendent jurisdiction exists if the state and federal claims "derive from 27 a common nucleus of operative facts" or are such that a plaintiff "would ordinarily 28 be expected to try them all in one judicial proceeding").

Venue

2       24. Removal to this Court is proper under 28 U.S.C. §1441 because the 3 Complaint was filed in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County
4 of Los Angeles and this U.S. District Court for the Central District of California
5 Western Division is the U.S. District Court for the district and division within 6 which this action is pending.

7       25. A copy of this Notice of Removal will be filed with the Superior
8 Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles and served upon all 9 adverse parties as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), and an appropriate notice of 10 compliance with 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d) also shall be served and filed in the above-
11 entitled Court.

13 WHEREFORE, DreamWorks Animation and DreamWorks Animation
14 SKG, Inc. respectfully request that this action be removed from the Superior Court
15 of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles, to the above-entitled 16 Court.

CIRIGLIANA DECL.

DECLARATION OF JORJA A. CIRIGLIANA

I, JORJA A. CIRIGLIANA, declare:

1. I am an associate with the law firm Mitchell, Silberberg & Knupp LLP, counsel of record for Defendants DreamWorks Animation LLC (“DreamWorks Animation”) and DreamWorks Animation SKG, Inc. (collectively “Defendants”). I submit this declaration in support of Defendants’ Notice of Removal. I have personal knowledge of the following facts and, if called and sworn as a witness, could and would competently testify thereto.

4 April 15, 2013 through July 7, 2013.

5       21. Plaintiff provided reasonable notice to Defendants as soon as practicable of her need 6 for bonding leave, when the leave would begin, and how long it was expected to last.

7       22. Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment on or about June 17, 2013 during her
8 CFRA-protected bonding leave.

9       23. Prior to her termination, Plaintiff provided all of the requested information regarding 10 her reason/s and need for leave.

11       24. Plaintiff's written and/or verbal notifications provided sufficient notice to Defendants
12 that Plaintiff qualified for leave under the CFRA.

13       25. Defendants, and each of them, failed to provide Plaintiff with her rights and 14 responsibilities under the CFRA.

15       26. Defendants, and each of them, refused to grant Plaintiff's request/s for CFRA leave.

16       27. An employee is entitled to leave of absence under the California Family Rights Act 17 because of the birth of a child.

18       28. Pursuant to Gov. Code §12945.2(a) and California Code of Regulations §7297.2(a),
19 (c), an employer must reinstate an employee to the same or a comparable position at the conclusion
20 of the leave.

21       29. It is an unlawful employment practice for Defendants, and each of them, to violate an 22 employee's rights under the California Family Rights Act. Gov. Code §12945.2(a). This includes 23 failing or refusing to grant a request for leave to an eligible employee, failing or refusing to 24 designate that employee's leave as a CFRA-protected leave and failing or refusing to provide an 25 employee with his or her rights and responsibilities under the CFRA. Id.; 2 Cal. Code of Regulations
26 ("CCR") §7297.4(a)(1)(A); and see 29 CFR §825.300. In addition, an employer may not 27 discriminate, retaliate against, refuse to hire, and/or discharge an employee for exercising any right
28 under the CFRA. Gov. Code §12940(h) and 2 CCR §7297.7.

1           30. In denying Plaintiff her request/s for CFRA leave, failing to provide Plaintiff with her
2 rights and responsibilities under the CFRA, retaliating against Plaintiff because she exercised her
3 rights under CFRA, interfering with her rights under the CFRA; and terminating Plaintiff's 4 employment for taking and/or requesting CFRA- protected bonding leave, Defendants, and each of 5 them, violated Gov. Code §12945.2 and the corresponding California Regulations, including,
6 without limitation, 2 Cal. C. Regs §7297.1, et seq.

7       31. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, as described
8 above, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer economic damages, including lost wages,
9 lost benefits, loss of promotional opportunity, and other compensatory damages in an amount to be
10 ascertained at the time of trial.

1           32. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff suffered
2 and continues to suffer humiliation, emotional and mental distress, anxiety and stress and has been
3 generally damaged in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

4           33. As a direct and proximate result of the conduct of Defendants, and each of them,
5 Plaintiff was forced to incur substantial costs and attorney's fees. Under Gov. Code §12965(b),
6 Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees according to proof at the time of trial.

7       34. The acts of Defendants, and each of them, which were carried out by managing 8 agents, were intentional, willful and malicious and done in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights,
9 safety and well being and with the intent to vex, injure and annoy Plaintiff, as such Plaintiff requests
0 that exemplary and punitive damages be assessed against each of these Defendants in an amount
1 sufficient to punish said Defendants and to deter others from engaging in similar conduct.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION FOR INTERFERENCE WITH CFRA RIGHTS

5       35. Plaintiff repeats and repleads all allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 34, 6 inclusive, above, as though fully set forth in this cause of action.

7       36. Defendants DREAMWORKS, ENTERTAINMENT PARTNERS and DOES 1
8 through 100 inclusive, and each of them, interfered with Plaintiff's CFRA rights.

1           37. Plaintiff attempted to take time off work as authorized and permitted under the
 2 CFRA.

3           38. Prior to her termination, Plaintiff provided all of the requested information regarding
 4 her need for CFRA-protected bonding leave. Her verbal and/or written notifications provided
 5 sufficient notice to Defendants that Plaintiff qualified for leave under the CFRA.

6           39. Defendants, and each of them, failed to provide Plaintiff with notice of her rights and 7 responsibilities under the CFRA. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants, in failing to 8 provide Plaintiff with notice of her rights, attempted to avoid their responsibilities to Plaintiff under 9 CFRA.

10          40. Although Plaintiff's requested leave qualified as a CFRA leave, and Defendants had 11 actual notice of Plaintiff's need for leave due to the birth of her baby, Defendants failed to grant
 12 Plaintiff's request for leave and, instead, terminated her employment. Upon information and belief, 13 Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment in whole or in substantial part to avoid having to give 14 her time off to bond with her baby.

15          41. It is an unlawful employment practice for Defendants, and each of them, to interfere 16 with an eligible employee's right to take CFRA leave.

17          42. In engaging in the conduct described above, Defendants, and each of them interfered 18 with Plaintiff's right to CFRA leave.

19          43. By interfering with Plaintiff's rights under the California Family Rights Act, and 20 subsequently terminating Plaintiff's employment, defendants, and each of them, violated Gov. Code
 21 §12945.2 and the corresponding California CCR, including, without limitation, §7297.1 et seq.

22          44. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, as described
 23 above, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer economic damages, including lost wages,
 24 lost benefits, loss of promotional opportunity, and other compensatory damages in an amount to be
 25 ascertained at the time of trial.

26          45. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff suffered
 27 and continues to suffer humiliation, emotional and mental distress, anxiety and stress and has been
 28 generally damaged in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

46. As a direct and proximate result of the conduct of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff was forced to incur substantial costs and attorney's fees. Under Gov. Code §12965(b), Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees according to proof at the time of trial.

47. The acts of Defendants, and each of them, which were carried out by managing agents, were intentional, willful and malicious and done in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, safety and well being and with the intent to vex, injure and annoy Plaintiff; as such Plaintiff requests that exemplary and punitive damages be assessed against each of these Defendants in an amount sufficient to punish said Defendants and to deter others from engaging in similar conduct.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FOR UNLAWFUL RETALIATION IN VIOLATION OF CFRA (Gov. Code § 12945.2)

(As Against All Defendants)

12       48. Plaintiff repeats and repleads, and incorporates herein by this reference, paragraphs 1 13 through 47 above, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

14       49. Prior to her termination, Plaintiff provided notice of her need for leave to her 15 employer and she provided all of the requested information regarding her reason/s and need for 16 leave.

17       50. Her written and/or verbal notifications provided sufficient notice to Defendants that 18 Plaintiff qualified for leave under the CFRA.

19 51. Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment during her CFRA-protected bonding
20 leave.

52. An eligible employee is entitled to a leave of absence under the CFRA because of the birth of a child. Plaintiff was CFRA-eligible at the time she requested her bonding leave and she would have continued to be CFRA-eligible throughout leave of absence if Defendants had not terminated her employment.

53. In California, an employer may not discriminate, retaliate against, refuse to hire, and/or discharge an employee for exercising any right under the CFRA. Gov. Code §12945.2(l);

 17 above, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer economic damages, including lost wages,

 28 safety and well being and with the intent to vex, injure and annoy Plaintiff, as such Plaintiff requests

1 that exemplary and punitive damages be assessed against each of these Defendants in an amount
2 sufficient to punish said Defendants and to deter others from engaging in similar conduct.

(As Against All Defendants)

84. Plaintiff repeats and repleads, and incorporates herein by this reference, paragraphs 1 through 83 above, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

86. Here, as set forth above, Defendants engaged in discriminatory conduct toward Plaintiff on account of perceived pregnancy and terminated her for taking CFRA and/or PDLL-protected absences. In doing so, Defendants blatantly ignored their duty to prevent discrimination and retaliation and instead condoned and encouraged such unlawful conduct.

87. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, as described above, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer economic damages, including lost wages, lost benefits, loss of promotional opportunity, and other compensatory damages in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

13 evidenced by the enactment of the FEHA, including the CFRA and PDLL.

14       94. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, as described
15 above, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer economic damages, including lost wages,

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.22D of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HANDLING UNLIMITED CIVIL CASES

The following critical provisions of the Chapter Three Rules, as applicable in the Central District, are summarized for your assistance.

APPLICATION

The Chapter Three Rules were effective January 1, 1994. They apply to all general civil cases.

PRIORITY OVER OTHER RULES

The Chapter Three Rules shall have priority over all other Local Rules to the extent the others are inconsistent.

CHALLENGE TO ASSIGNED JUDGE

A challenge under Code of Civil Procedure section 170.6 must be made within 15 days after notice of assignment for all purposes to a judge, or if a party has not yet appeared, within 15 days of the first appearance.

TIME STANDARDS

Cases assigned to the Individual Calendaring Court will be subject to processing under the following time standards:

COMPLAINTS: All complaints shall be served within 60 days of filing and proof of service shall be filed within 90 days of filing.

CROSS-COMPLAINTS: Without leave of court first being obtained, no cross-complaint may be filed by any party after their answer is filed. Cross-complaints shall be served within 30 days of the filing date and a proof of service filed within 60 days of the filing date.

A Status Conference will be scheduled by the assigned Independent Calendar Judge no later than 270 days after the filing of the complaint. Counsel must be fully prepared to discuss the following issues: alternative dispute resolution, bifurcation, settlement, trial date, and expert witnesses.

FINAL STATUS CONFERENCE

The Court will require the parties at a status conference not more than 10 days before the trial to have timely filed and served all motions in limine, bifurcation motions, statements of major evidentiary issues, dispositive motions, requested jury instructions, and special jury instructions and special jury verdicts. These matters may be heard and resolved at this conference. At least 5 days before this conference, counsel must also have exchanged lists of exhibits and witnesses and have submitted to the court a brief statement of the case to be read to the jury panel as required by Chapter Eight of the Los Angeles Superior Court Rules.

SANCTIONS

The court will impose appropriate sanctions for the failure or refusal to comply with Chapter Three Rules, orders made by the Court, and time standards or deadlines established by the Court or by the Chapter Three Rules. Such sanctions may be on a party or if appropriate on counsel for the party.

This is not a complete delineation of the Chapter Three Rules, and adherence only to the above provisions is therefore not a guarantee against the imposition of sanctions under Trial Court Delay Reduction. Careful reading and compliance with the actual Chapter Rules is absolutely imperative.

This stipulation is intended to encourage cooperation among the parties at an early stage in the litigation and to assist the parties in efficient case resolution.

The parties agree that:

1. The parties commit to conduct an initial conference (in-person or via teleconference or via videoconference) within 15 days from the date this stipulation is signed, to discuss and consider whether there can be agreement on the following:
  - a. Are motions to challenge the pleadings necessary? If the issue can be resolved by amendment as of right, or if the Court would allow leave to amend, could an amended complaint resolve most or all of the issues a demurser might otherwise raise? If so, the parties agree to work through pleading issues so that a demurser need only raise issues they cannot resolve. Is the issue that the defendant seeks to raise amenable to resolution on demurser, or would some other type of motion be preferable? Could a voluntary targeted exchange of documents or information by any party cure an uncertainty in the pleadings?
  - b. Initial mutual exchanges of documents at the "core" of the litigation. (For example, in an employment case, the employment records, personnel file and documents relating to the conduct in question could be considered "core." In a personal injury case, an incident or police report, medical records, and repair or maintenance records could be considered "core.");
  - c. Exchange of names and contact information of witnesses;
  - d. Any insurance agreement that may be available to satisfy part or all of a judgment, or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy a judgment;
  - e. Exchange of any other information that might be helpful to facilitate understanding, handling, or resolution of the case in a manner that preserves objections or privileges by agreement;
  - f. Controlling issues of law that, if resolved early, will promote efficiency and economy in other phases of the case. Also, when and how such issues can be presented to the Court;
  - g. Whether or when the case should be scheduled with a settlement officer, what discovery or court ruling on legal issues is reasonably required to make settlement discussions meaningful, and whether the parties wish to use a sitting judge or a private mediator or other options as discussed in the "Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Information Package" served with the complaint;

- h. Computation of damages, including documents not privileged or protected from disclosure, on which such computation is based;
  - i. Whether the case is suitable for the Expedited Jury Trial procedures (see information at www.lasuperiorcourt.org under "Civil" and then under "General Information").
2. The time for a defending party to respond to a complaint or cross-complaint will be extended to _____ for the complaint, and _____ for the cross-complaint, which is comprised of the 30 days to respond under Government Code § 88816(b), and the 30 days permitted by Code of Civil Procedure section 1054(a), good cause having been found by the Civil Supervising Judge due to the case management benefits provided by this Stipulation.
3. The parties will prepare a joint report titled "Joint Status Report Pursuant to Initial Conference and Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation," and if desired, a proposed order summarizing results of their meet and confer and advising the Court of any way it may assist the parties' efficient conduct or resolution of the case. The parties shall attach the Joint Status Report to the Case Management Conference statement, and file the documents when the CMC statement is due.
4. References to "days" mean calendar days, unless otherwise noted. If the date for performing any act pursuant to this stipulation falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Court holiday, then the time for performing that act shall be extended to the next Court day.

This stipulation is intended to provide a fast and informal resolution of discovery issues through limited paperwork and an informal conference with the Court to aid in the resolution of the issues.

The parties agree that:

1. Prior to the discovery cut-off in this action, no discovery motion shall be filed or heard unless the moving party first makes a written request for an Informal Discovery Conference pursuant to the terms of this stipulation.
2. At the Informal Discovery Conference the Court will consider the dispute presented by parties and determine whether it can be resolved informally. Nothing set forth herein will preclude a party from making a record at the conclusion of an Informal Discovery Conference, either orally or in writing.
3. Following a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue to be presented, a party may request an Informal Discovery Conference pursuant to the following procedures:
  - a. The party requesting the Informal Discovery Conference will:
    - I. File a Request for Informal Discovery Conference with the clerk's office on the approved form (copy attached) and deliver a courtesy, conformed copy to the assigned department;
    - II. Include a brief summary of the dispute and specify the relief requested; and
    - III. Serve the opposing party pursuant to any authorized or agreed method of service that ensures that the opposing party receives the Request for Informal Discovery Conference no later than the next court day following the filing.
  - b. Any Answer to a Request for Informal Discovery Conference must:
    - I. Also be filed on the approved form (copy attached);
    - II. Include a brief summary of why the requested relief should be denied;

- iii. Be filed within two (2) court days of receipt of the Request; and
  - iv. Be served on the opposing party pursuant to any authorized or agreed upon method of service that ensures that the opposing party receives the Answer no later than the next court day following the filing.
  - c. No other pleadings, including but not limited to exhibits, declarations, or attachments, will be accepted.
  - d. If the Court has not granted or denied the Request for Informal Discovery Conference within ten (10) days following the filing of the Request, then it shall be deemed to have been denied. If the Court acts on the Request, the parties will be notified whether the Request for Informal Discovery Conference has been granted or denied and, if granted, the date and time of the Informal Discovery Conference, which must be within twenty (20) days of the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference.
  - e. If the conference is not held within twenty (20) days of the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference, unless extended by agreement of the parties and the Court, then the Request for the Informal Discovery Conference shall be deemed to have been denied at that time.
4. If (a) the Court has denied a conference or (b) one of the time deadlines above has expired without the Court having acted or (c) the Informal Discovery Conference is concluded without resolving the dispute, then a party may file a discovery motion to address unresolved issues.
5. The parties hereby further agree that the time for making a motion to compel or other discovery motion is tolled from the date of filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference until (a) the request is denied or deemed denied or (b) twenty (20) days after the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference, whichever is earlier, unless extended by Order of the Court..

It is the understanding and intent of the parties that this stipulation shall, for each discovery dispute to which it applies, constitute a writing memorializing a "specific later date to which the propounding (or demanding or requesting) party and the responding party have agreed in writing," within the meaning of Code Civil Procedure sections 2030.300(c), 2031.320(c), and 2033.290(c).

- 6. Nothing herein will preclude any party from applying ex parte for appropriate relief, including an order shortening time for a motion to be heard concerning discovery.
- 7. Any party may terminate this stipulation by giving twenty-one (21) days notice of intent to terminate the stipulation.
- 8. References to "days" mean calendar days, unless otherwise noted. If the date for performing any act pursuant to this stipulation falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Court holiday, then the time for performing that act shall be extended to the next Court day.

This stipulation is intended to provide fast and informal resolution of evidentiary issues through diligent efforts to define and discuss such issues and limit paperwork.

The parties agree that:

1. At least ____ days before the final status conference, each party will provide all other parties with a list containing a one paragraph explanation of each proposed motion in limine. 2. The parties thereafter will meet and confer, either in person or via teleconference or videoconference, concerning all proposed motions in limine. In that meet and confer, the parties will determine:

THIS AGREEMENT is executed as of this first day of August, 2012 between the following Producers: ABC Studios; Adelaide Productions, Inc.; Animated Productions Inc.; Cartoon Network Studios, Inc.; Columbia Pictures Industries, Inc.; DreamWorks Animation LLC; DreamWorks Animation Television, Inc.; Fox Animation, Los Angeles; Fox TV Animation, Inc.; Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Animation Inc.; Muddy Water, Inc.; Obelisk Productions, Inc.; Partricks Road Productions II, Inc.; Rutherford Bench Productions, Inc.; Universal Animation Studios LLC; Universal City Studios LLC; Walt Disney Pictures; Warner Bros. Animation; Warner Specialty Productions Inc.; and Watercooler Productions, Inc. as well as others who subsequently become signatory hereto (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Producer"), on the one hand, and the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the United States, its Territories and Canada, and The Animation Guild and Affiliated Optical Electronic and Graphic Arts, Local #839 of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the United States, its Territories and Canada (both hereinafter referred to as the "Union"), on the other hand. In consideration of the mutual agreements hereinafter contained, it is agreed as follows:

WITNESSETH

The basic purposes of this Agreement are:

1. To assist each other in every fair and constructive way to secure uninterrupted work in the Producer's place or places of business and the general stabilization of working conditions therein. To that end, Producer agrees to discuss its annual production schedules and its personnel requirements with the Union.
2. To provide methods for the fair and peaceful adjustment of all disputes between the Producer and the Union or members of the Union for the mutual benefit of the Producer and its employees.
3. Both parties hereto agree that these fundamental purposes shall serve as a guiding influence in the settlement of all problems, disputes, grievances and differences between them during the term of this Agreement.
4. The Union hereby warrants and agrees that it is not under any disability of any kind, either arising out of the provisions of its Articles of Incorporation, Constitution, By-laws or otherwise, that will prevent it from fully carrying out and performing each and all of the terms and conditions of the Agreement, and the Producer hereby warrants and agrees that it is not under any disability of any kind, either contractual or otherwise, that will prevent it from fully carrying out and performing all of the terms and conditions hereof.

AUTHORITY OF UNION AND PRODUCER

The Union and the Producer each agrees that it will not maintain or adopt any Articles or By-laws or any rules or orders which will be in conflict with this Agreement.

Each party hereto agrees that it will not take any action that will impede or prevent the full and complete performance of every term and condition hereof.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to vest in Local 839 (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Local Union") any rights, powers or privileges not granted to it by the provisions of the Constitution and By-laws of the I.A.T.S.E. in effect during the life of this Agreement, or which may be inconsistent with said provisions.

As Local #839 is a member of the I.A.T.S.E., nothing in this Agreement shall ever be construed to interfere with any obligation Local #839 owes to the I.A.T.S.E. by reason of a prior obligation.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual understandings contained, the parties covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1.
SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall be applicable to all persons employed by the Producer to perform services in this County of Los Angeles, or employed by the Producer in the County of Los Angeles to perform services outside said County, in any of the job classifications hereinafter set forth except where the employee is required to work under the jurisdiction of another union contract.

ARTICLE 2.
RECOGNITION

The Producer recognizes the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the United States, its Territories and Canada as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of all classifications listed in this Agreement, employed by the Producer. The Union makes this Agreement on behalf of such employees employed by the Producer, the majority of whom the Union warrants are members of the Union in good standing.

The Local Union represents that the terms of this Agreement have been submitted to its membership and have been duly approved thereby.

ARTICLE 3.
SHOP REQUIREMENTS

A. Each and every employee subject to this Agreement hired by the Producer to perform services in the County of Los Angeles, or hired by the Producer in the County of Los Angeles to perform services outside said County, except where he is required to work under another union's jurisdiction, shall be and remain a member in good standing of the Union on and after the thirtieth day following the beginning of his first employment, as hereinafter defined, or the effective date of this Agreement, whichever is the later. The foregoing requirements of Union membership as a condition of employment shall be subject to the obligations of the parties under law.

B. The Producer may employ or continue to employ any such employee who does not become or is not a member of the Union as required under Paragraph A. above until:

(1) the Union first gives the Producer a written notice that such employee has not become or is not then a member of the Union as above required, because of such employee's failure to tender the periodic dues and the initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining such membership, and

(2) such employee fails to tender to the Union such required periodic dues or initiation fees, as the case may be, within three (3) working days after Producer receives such notice in which event Producer upon receipt of written notice by the Union requesting the discharge of such employee for non-membership, as herein provided, shall discharge said employee at the close of shift on which such employee is working at the time Producer receives such notice.

C. Producer agrees to inform the Local Union in writing within seven (7) days (Sundays and holidays excluded) from the date of employment hereafter of any employee subject to this Agreement, of such employee's name, residential address, social security number, classification, applicable scale wage, and date of employment.

Producer agrees to inform the Local Union in writing within seven (7) days (Sundays and holidays excluded) of severance of employment and of permanent promotions.

D. "First employment" as referred to in Paragraph A. of this Article shall (unless determined otherwise by the N.L.R.B., its General Counsel, or a court of competent jurisdiction) mean, in the case of all employees, the first such employment in any of the classifications covered hereunder by any Producer in the animated film cartoon industry in Los Angeles County.

E. The parties hereto agree that the above Union Security provisions shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended in 1947, or subsequent amendments thereto, or any other applicable law. When and if such National Labor Relations Act, as amended in 1947, is amended to provide more favorable conditions for the Union than those provided herein with respect to said Union Security, or if the respective portions of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended in 1947, relating to said Union Security are held to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States, then in either of such events, the Union may, within sixty (60) days thereafter by written notice to Producer, signify its intention to negotiate a modification of such Union Security provisions only.

Such notice shall set forth in detail the proposals and recommendations of the Union. The parties agree to commence negotiations concerning the proposals or recommendations set forth in such notice, within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice by the Producer, and to continue such negotiations diligently and in good faith until agreement is reached on such proposals and recommendations. In the event that no agreement to modify said Union Security provision is reached within sixty (60) days after commencement of such negotiations, then within thirty (30) days thereafter, either party hereto may, by not less than sixty (60) days' advance written notice to the other party hereto, terminate this Agreement. If no such sixty (60) day notice to terminate is so served, then the terms and conditions of the existing Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 4.
WAGE SCALES, HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT AND WORKING CONDITIONS

Wage scales, hours of employment and working conditions shall be as set forth in the Wage Scales, Hours of Employment and Working Conditions attached hereto.

A. The rates of pay now being received by any employee shall not be decreased by reason of the execution of this Agreement.

B. It is recognized that weekly employees in classifications covered by this Agreement who are exempt under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, and whose rate is higher than one hundred ten percent (110%) of the applicable Journey rate may, at the Producer's option, be considered on an "On-Call" basis if mutually agreeable with the employee. An employee placed in such category shall not be subject to the provisions set forth in Article 5 ("HOURS") of this Agreement for work performed on a regularly-scheduled workday as provided in Article 5 hereof and may be required to work additional hours as required during those days. If an employee employed pursuant to Article 5, Paragraph A., below shall be required to work a sixth or seventh workday as defined in this Agreement, then he shall be paid one and one-half (1½) times one-fifth (1/5) of the minimum basic weekly rate provided herein for such employee's classification for each day so worked.

C. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent any individual from negotiating and obtaining from the Producer better conditions and terms of employment than those herein provided. Further, the Union and the Producer agree that the Producer shall have the right to adjust compensation, conditions and benefits at the sole discretion of the Producer, but in no event less than the applicable minimum compensation, conditions and benefits provided herein for such employee's classification.

For any employee whose salary is in excess of one hundred ten percent (110%) of the minimum scale required hereunder, any premium time payments required under this Agreement may be credited, to the extent legally permissible, to all overtime payments required under this Agreement.

D. If an employee shall be engaged in more than one (1) classification of work during any workweek, he shall be paid on a pro rata basis for time spent in each classification.

E. Homework Assignment for Weekly Employees

1. Homework for employees currently employed on a weekly basis shall be voluntary. Overtime, where applicable, shall be paid in accordance with Article 5 ("HOURS") of this Agreement.

2. Contributions to the Pension Plan, Active Health Plan and Retired Employees Fund shall include hours worked or guaranteed on homework assignments.

F. Deductions for Time Off

Whether due to tardiness or other causes, deductions shall not be in excess of time lost.

G. Documentaries and Industrials

The Producer and Union agree to negotiate separate agreements for the production of documentaries, commercials, educational or industrial films when and as needed.

H. Materials: Tools and Equipment

If, because of lack of facilities, the Producer requires an employee to work away from the studio, the Producer will furnish material and tools of the trade customarily furnished by the Producer. Necessary equipment shall likewise be furnished unless the employee has such equipment available.

I. Technological Change

1. Definition of Technological Change: As used herein, the term "technological change" means the introduction of any new or modified devices or equipment for the purpose of performing any work by employees covered by this Agreement, which work directly results in a change in the number of employees employed under this Agreement or which results, with respect to the performance of work in any classification hereunder, in materially changing the job description thereof, if any, provided herein, or in requiring substantially different training, qualification or skills therefor.

2. Producer's Right to Institute Technological Changes: The parties hereto agree that Producer has the unrestricted right to make technological changes and that such right shall not be subject to grievance or arbitration or any other proceeding. However, Producer's right to make technological changes shall be subject to the provisions of subparagraphs 3., 4., 5. and 6. of this Article 4, Paragraph I.

3. Notice of Technological Change: If Producer proposes to make any technological change, it shall give written notice thereof to Union and to any other union affected by such change. Such notice shall be given as soon as possible but no less than thirty (30) days prior to instituting such change.

4. Retraining: If any technological change permanently displaces any person in the performance of his job classification for Producer, and

1) such person, as of the date of such displacement, is entitled under the provisions of subparagraph 9. hereof to be credited with at least one (1) "qualified year" arising out of his employment by Producer and

2) such person is qualified to be retrained for an available job resulting from such technological change or for other jobs which Producer has available within Union's jurisdiction, or within the jurisdiction of any other union which is a party to the Memorandum of Agreement of 1965, or for any other available job opportunity with Producer, Producer agrees to endeavor to retrain such person for such available job at Producer's expense in which event the provisions of subparagraph 5. below shall not apply. Union agrees, anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, to permit such retraining and to cooperate with Producer with respect thereto. Union further agrees for the benefit of other union parties to the Memorandum of Agreement of 1965, in consideration of the inclusion in their respective contracts of a clause identical with this Article 4, Paragraph I, to permit retraining within this Union's jurisdiction of employees displaced from jobs within the jurisdiction of such other union parties; provided, however, that such other union parties' displaced employees are qualified for retraining in this Union's jurisdiction and provided, further, that such permission shall be on condition (applicable to this Article 4, Paragraph I only) that this Union has been notified of such available job and within forty-eight (48) hours thereafter (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) is unable to furnish competent available persons on the Studio Seniority Roster, if any, applicable to this Union, to fill such available job. Any such persons offered retraining pursuant to this subparagraph 4. shall, of course, have the right to reject the same, but any such rejection shall discharge Producer's obligations under this Article 4, Paragraph I, unless the job opportunity for which Producer offered retraining was at a lower rate of pay than the job from which employee is being displaced.

5. Displacement Pay: If any such technological change permanently displaces any person in the performance of his job classification for Producer, and

1) such person, as of the date of such displacement, is entitled under the provisions of subparagraph 9. hereof to be credited with at least one (1) "qualified year" arising out of his employment by Producer and

2) such person makes written application to Producer within thirty (30) days after such displacement, to receive Displacement Pay (as herein defined),

Producer shall pay him the amount of compensation set forth in the following table and upon such payment he shall be removed from the Studio Seniority Roster, if any.

Qualified Years as of the Date of Displacement	Number of Weeks of Displacement Pay Payable
1 or 2	1
3	1½
4	2
5 to 9 (inclusive)	3
10 or 11	5
12 or 13	6
14 or 15	7
16 or 17	8
18 or 19	9
20 or more	10

The payment of Displacement Pay as above provided shall be separate and apart from any obligation Producer may have to pay Dismissal Pay to such displaced person under the provisions of Article 14 hereof ("DISMISSAL PAY"). Anything in this subparagraph 5. to the contrary notwithstanding, no such displaced person shall be eligible for Displacement Pay if:

- 1) Producer offers the training referred to in subparagraph 4. above and such person rejects it, unless the training rejected is for a job at a lower rate of pay, or
- 2) such person is offered a job by Producer at an equal or better rate of pay, or
- 3) such person accepts any job with Producer even though such job is at a lower rate of pay.

6. Negotiation of New Rates: If any technological change results, with respect to the performance of work in any classification hereunder, in materially changing the job description thereof, if any, provided herein, or in requiring substantially different training, qualification or skills therefor, and either the Producer or the Union desires to negotiate a new rate or classification for such job, the party desiring such negotiation shall give written notice to such effect to the other party within thirty (30) days following the date upon which any such job is so affected. Upon receipt of such notice the parties shall immediately endeavor to agree upon the proper classification or rate for such job. Any such agreement shall be final and binding upon the parties concerned. If no such agreement is reached within thirty (30) days after such written notice is received, either party to this Agreement may, within thirty (30) days thereafter, invoke Step Three of the grievance procedure provided in Article 15 hereof, or, if they mutually agree to waive Step Three, may proceed immediately to Step Four of the grievance procedure so provided. The rate or classification determined by such agreement or by any arbitration pursuant to Step Four of the grievance procedure shall be effective retroactive to the date upon which any employee commenced performing services in any such affected job, but no reduction in rate shall be retroactive.

7. Experimental Technological Changes: The provisions of subparagraphs 3., 4., 5. and 6. above shall not apply to any experimental technological change except that, if any such change becomes other than experimental and any increased rate for a job affected thereby is negotiated pursuant to subparagraph 6. above, such increased rate shall be retroactive to the date upon which an employee commenced performing the changed services in such affected job. As used herein, the term "experimental" technological change shall mean a technological change which is instituted by Producer for the primary purpose of determining, under operating conditions, the feasibility and adequacy of performance of any new or modified device or equipment; provided, however, that the change shall no longer be considered experimental after the date upon which its operation by persons under the jurisdiction of this Agreement is no longer subject to supervision by the technicians or engineers concerned with its development. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed to deprive Union of jurisdiction over any job over which it otherwise has jurisdiction hereunder.

8. Disputes Concerning Retraining, Displacement Pay and Negotiation of New Rates: If a dispute arises between Union and Producer with respect to any determination required by subparagraphs 4., 5., 6. or 7. of this Article 4, Paragraph I., such dispute shall be subject to the grievance procedure set forth in Article 15 of this Agreement, but any award arising out of such grievance or arbitration shall be limited to the enforcement of the provisions of said subparagraphs hereof and shall not affect Producer's right to make technological changes.

9. "Qualified Years:" As used herein, the term "qualified years," with respect to any employee, shall refer to the number of consecutive periods, of three hundred sixty-five (365) consecutive days each, calculated backward from the date of his severance, in each of which the employee has been employed by Producer for two hundred (200) or more work days (including paid vacation days as work days), it being understood and agreed that if in any such three hundred sixty-five (365) day period such employee was employed for less than two hundred (200) work days by Producer, such three hundred sixty-five (365) day period shall not be counted as a qualified year, but shall be "bridged" for displacement pay purposes, with the result that any such three hundred sixty-five (365) day period or periods prior to such "bridged" year in which employee was employed by Producer for two hundred (200) or more work days shall be counted as qualified years; provided, however, that any three hundred sixty-five (365) day period in which employee received any authorized leave of absence without pay shall be extended by the length of such leave, and provided, further, that the computation of qualified years shall be subject to the following exceptions:

a. If an employee is determined to have less than two (2) qualified years, the employee shall be credited with a qualified year only if, in addition to having been employed for at least two hundred (200) or more days in the three hundred sixty-five (365) days immediately preceding the date of displacement, the employee shall have been employed for at least one (1) day during the first six (6) months of the eighteen (18) month period immediately preceding the date of displacement, in which case the employee shall be credited with one (1) qualified year.

b. Any period of two hundred seventy (270) consecutive days commencing prior to January 31, 1961 in which such employee was not actually employed by Producer will be deemed to have broken the employment record of such employee and no period prior to the completion of such two hundred seventy (270) days shall be considered in determining qualified years of such employee.

c. With respect to any severance of employment of an employee which occurred between February 1, 1961 and January 31, 1965, both dates inclusive, the passage of two hundred seventy (270) days following such severance in which such employee was not employed and did not receive an offer of comparable employment under the terms and conditions specified in the predecessor collective bargaining agreement or this Agreement shall result in his being a new employee for displacement pay purposes upon the completion of such two hundred seventy (270) day period.

d. If an employee on the date of the displacement from employment under this Agreement after January 31, 1961, with Producer, would otherwise have had one (1), two (2), three (3), or four (4) consecutive "qualified

"years" with Producer, but had received full dismissal pay or displacement pay prior to February 1, 1965, then the employee shall be deemed to be a new employee for displacement pay purposes after being rehired and the applicable consecutive qualified years shall be based and computed only upon employment with Producer after the employee so became such a new employee.

ARTICLE 5. HOURS

Employees may be employed on a weekly or a daily basis as herein prescribed. The full payroll week shall be midnight Saturday through midnight Saturday.

A. Weekly Employment

1. Employees employed pursuant to this Paragraph A. shall be guaranteed a minimum of forty (40) hours in any five (5) workdays out of seven (7) consecutive days, with two (2) consecutive days off and shall be guaranteed a minimum of one (1) week's employment. A day off at the end of any workweek immediately followed by another day off at the beginning of the next workweek shall satisfy the two (2) consecutive days off requirement. A workday starting on one calendar day and running into the next calendar day shall be credited to the first calendar day.

All time worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week shall be paid at one and one-half (1½) times the hourly rate provided herein for such employee's classification.

2. Sixth and Seventh Days

a. Time worked on the employee's sixth workday of the workweek shall be paid at one and one-half (1½) times the hourly rate provided herein for such employee's classification. Time worked on the employee's seventh workday of the workweek shall be paid at two (2) times the hourly rate provided herein for such employee's classification.

b. Minimum call for the sixth and seventh days shall be four (4) hours.

3. Absences not to exceed eight (8) hours in any one regularly-scheduled workday occasioned by the following shall be included in determining whether or not overtime shall be paid under the applicable clause.

a. Where absence is occasioned by the occurrence of a holiday on which no work is scheduled for the employee concerned.

b. Where absence is occasioned by a certified illness for which the employee is paid sick leave, or by an accident on the job.

c. Where the employee reported to work, or was ready and willing to report for work, but was laid off for the full day or part thereof due to lack of available work.

d. Where the employee has been granted a leave of absence during his normal working hours in order to conduct Union business.

4. Producer shall give notice of at least five (5) working days to employee of any change in that employee's regular weekly schedule, except when exigencies of production make such notice impractical or impossible. If an employee so notified of such change in his regular weekly schedule requests that Producer delay the implementation of such schedule change due to the employee's unusual or emergency circumstances, the Producer shall not unreasonably or arbitrarily deny such request.

B. Daily Employment

1. Employees employed pursuant to this Paragraph B. shall be guaranteed a minimum of four (4) hours in any one day. All time worked up to eight (8) hours per day shall be paid at 117.719% (which rate is inclusive of vacation and holiday pay) of the minimum basic hourly rate provided herein for such employee's classification. All time worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day shall be paid at one and one-half (1½) times the applicable hourly rate provided herein for such employee's classification.

2. Employees employed on a daily basis shall receive written confirmation from Producer prior to commencement of employment that employment is on a daily basis.

3. In the event that an employee's employment status is changed from daily to weekly or weekly to daily, written notice of such change shall be furnished to the affected employee at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the effect of such change, except when exigencies of production make such notice impractical or impossible.

4. A weekly employee shall not be changed to daily employment for the purpose of avoiding holiday pay pursuant to Article 6 ("HOLIDAYS") below.

C. Overtime premiums payable under any provision of this Agreement shall not be compounded. When practicable, overtime shall be distributed equally.

D. Golden Hours Provision

All time worked in excess of fourteen (14) consecutive hours (including meal periods) from the time of reporting to work shall be Golden Hours and shall be paid at two (2) times the applicable hourly rate provided herein for such employee's classification.

E. Short Workweek

Weekly employees who are unable to work a full workweek, either at the studio or at home, shall apply to the Union for a waiver.

ARTICLE 6.
HOLIDAYS

A. There shall be nine (9) paid holidays during the year: New Year's Day, Presidents' Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, the day after Thanksgiving, and Christmas Day. Every employee shall receive straight time pay for each unworked holiday; double time shall be paid for all work done on said holidays.

B. For holidays not worked, 3.719% of the employee's annual straight time earnings shall be payable upon request of the employee after March 15 in the calendar year subsequent to the calendar year in which such earnings are accumulated. The total amount of salary paid in the period of a calendar year hereunder for recognized holidays not worked shall be offset against an amount equal to 3.719% of such employee's accumulated earnings within the same period. The employee shall be paid the amount by which such 3.719% computation exceeds the amount of holiday pay such employee has received for such period.

C. Said holidays shall be counted as eight (8) hours of work in computing the forty (40) hour week.

D. If any such holiday falls on the sixth day of an employee's workweek, then the fifth workday of such employee's workweek shall be considered as the paid holiday, unless another day off is mutually agreed upon by the Producer and the employee.

E. If any such holiday falls on the seventh day of an employee's workweek, then the first workday of the following workweek shall be considered as the paid holiday, unless another day off is mutually agreed upon by the Producer and the employee.

F. To make it possible for the employees to enjoy an extended holiday, the sixth day may be worked in any week in which a holiday falls in place of a regularly-scheduled work day, provided it is mutually agreeable between the Producer and the Union. If an employee has not worked forty (40) hours in any such workweek, the time worked on the sixth day shall be paid for at straight time.

G. In the event a holiday should occur during the vacation period on a day the employee is normally scheduled to work, an additional day's vacation shall be allowed an employee, or the Producer, at its discretion, may pay for such extra day in lieu thereof.

H. Procedure for Payment of Vacation and Holiday Pay

The following system shall be implemented regarding the payment of vacation and holiday pay:

1. Producers which currently pay for vacations and holidays on a weekly basis shall continue to adhere to their existing practice.

2. Producers which currently pay for vacations and holidays at the end of the calendar year shall comply with the following procedure:

a. On or about March 15 of the year following the calendar year in which vacation and/or holiday pay was earned, employees and their Local Unions will be notified as to the amount of vacation and holiday pay earned in the preceding year. Employees on payroll may request vacation and holiday pay and schedule their vacations according to the Agreement. Employees on layoff may claim vacation and holiday pay pursuant to the provisions of the existing Agreement.

b. In or about February of the second calendar year following the year in which vacation and/or holiday pay was earned ("the second calendar year"), employees who have not taken or claimed vacation or holiday pay, and their Local Union, will be notified that they must claim such pay by June 1 of that year. On or about May 15 of the second calendar year, the Local Union will be notified that, unless claimed by June 15, unclaimed vacation and holiday pay will be paid to the Motion Picture Industry Pension Plan. On or about June 15 of the second calendar year, unclaimed vacation and holiday pay will be contributed to the Motion Picture Industry Pension Plan and credited to the appropriate employee pension plan account.

ARTICLE 7.
SICK LEAVE

If the Producer has a present policy of granting sick leave, said policy will be continued for the duration of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 8.
VACATIONS

All weekly employees covered by this Agreement shall be given vacations as follows:

- A. Employees who have had one (1) year of continuous employment with the Producer shall be entitled to two (2) weeks' paid vacation.
- B. Employees who have been with the Producer more than one (1) continuous year shall accumulate vacation at the rate of one (1) week for each six (6) months of employment.
- C. Employees who have less than one (1) year of continuous employment with the Producer whose services are terminated shall be paid vacation pay at the rate of four percent (4%) of straight time earnings.
- D. Vacation shall not be cumulative between calendar years and shall be taken at times approved by the Producer. As much notice as possible will be given to employee.

E. An employee's sixth and seventh work days occurring during vacation periods are excluded as days granted.

F. When any portion of the vacation period is less than a full payroll week, by mutual agreement between the Producer and the employee, the Producer may grant leave of absence without pay for the remaining fractional portion of the payroll week.

G. The Producer, at its election, may compute any payment of vacation pay on the employee's personal income tax earnings year, or the employee's anniversary year, or the studio's established fiscal vacation year. The Producer will notify the Union accordingly.

H. Additional Vacation Provisions

The following vacation provisions shall apply to employees who meet the necessary eligibility qualifications:

1. Eligibility Requirements

Eligible employees shall be entitled to one hundred twenty (120) hours of vacation after eight (8) years. Eligible employees are those who actually worked for Producer for eight (8) consecutive "eligible" years.

As used in this provision, the term "year" shall mean the employee's personal income tax earnings year (also hereinafter referred to as "tax year"). The Producer, at its election, may substitute for the tax year the employee's anniversary year or the studio's established fiscal vacation year; the term "eligible year" shall mean a tax year in which the employee worked one hundred (100) or more straight time days for Producer; the term "straight time days" shall be deemed to include the five (5) days of employment specified under the normal workweek.

Any tax year in which employee actually works less than one hundred (100) "straight time days" for Producer shall be excluded in computing the required eight (8) eligible tax years.

Employees who fail to work more than one hundred (100) straight time days for such Producer in each of any two (2) consecutive tax years shall, at the end of such second year, be considered a new employee hereunder with no previous employment credit with the Producer for the purpose of establishing the above eligibility requirements; provided, however, that in determining such two (2) consecutive years, no year shall be included (and the straight time days worked in such year shall not be counted for any eligibility purposes hereunder) in which the employee could not work one hundred (100) straight time days for Producer due to either or both of the following:

- a. The period of recorded leaves of absence granted by the Producer;
- b. The period during which the employee was absent and physically unable to work for Producer solely as a result of an "Industrial Accident" occurring to such employee while employed by the Producer.

2. *Vacation Days and Pay

Such employees who become eligible as above provided shall, beginning with the date they so become eligible, earn with Producer fifty percent (50%) more in vacation time and money based upon the vacation schedule set forth above. Any such employee shall be limited to earning a maximum of one hundred twenty (120) hours vacation per year; provided that, for the remainder of any such tax year in which such an employee becomes eligible, he shall only earn additional vacation time and money, as above provided, based solely on the straight time days he worked for Producer after he so became eligible and within the remaining portion of such year, to be computed separate and apart at the rate of one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the vacation benefit specified under the above vacation schedule.

3. *Loss of Eligibility

Employees who become eligible, as above provided, but who thereafter either resign from employment with Producer or fail to work for Producer more than one hundred fifty (150) straight time days in any one (1) tax year shall, as of the last day of such tax year or, in the case of resignation, the date of such resignation, lose such eligibility and right to earn the additional vacation days and pay above provided; in such event, they shall thereupon be considered new employees hereunder with no previous employment credit with Producer for the purpose of subsequently establishing the above eligibility requirements.

In determining whether any employee loses his eligibility for failure to work for Producer more than one hundred fifty (150) straight time days in a tax year as above provided, no such year shall be counted for this purpose in which the employee could not work at least one hundred fifty-one (151) straight time days for Producer due to either or both of the following:

a. The period of recorded leaves of absence granted such employee by the Producer;

b. The period during which such employee was absent and physically unable to work for Producer solely as a result of an "Industrial Accident" occurring to him while employed by Producer.

4. Eligibility Credit

For the purposes of determining "eligible" years and "loss of eligibility" only, as above provided, employees who leave the employ of Producer to perform military service and who remain in the Armed Forces of the United States in accordance with the applicable National Selective Service Act (or other subsequently enacted comparable national legislation then in effect pertaining to such service) shall be credited as having worked for Producer the number of applicable days the employee would normally have been employed by Producer for straight time days in each workweek of the period of such service.

5. The method of payment of vacation and holiday pay shall be as set forth in Article 6 ("HOLIDAYS"), Paragraph H.

ARTICLE 9.
NON-DISCRIMINATION

The parties agree to continue to comply with all applicable federal and state laws relating to non-discriminatory employment practices.

Claims alleging a violation of this 'Non-Discrimination' provision are not subject to grievance nor arbitration.

ARTICLE 10.
MILITARY SERVICE PROVISIONS

In addition to abiding by all federal laws in regard to employees serving in the Armed Forces of the United States, the Producer agrees not to deduct any monies from the salary of any employee for time spent in being interviewed or examined by the Draft Board or any Medical Board prior to rejection from or induction into the Armed Forces. The Producer may require evidence of the necessity of such an interview from the Draft Board.

ARTICLE 11.
LOAN OUTS

Employees loaned out by Producer shall continue to retain and to accumulate their seniority and shall receive at least the hourly rate provided herein for such employee's classification. Whenever an employee so loaned out by Producer is actually subjected to any additional expense because of such loan out, then he shall be compensated therefor by the borrowing Producer.

ARTICLE 12.
SENIORITY

Seniority shall be cumulative from the first day of employment with the Producer. Seniority shall be broken by discharge for cause, voluntary resignation (including refusal to accept any job assignment commensurate with the employee's experience at an hourly rate not less than such employee's then-current hourly rate; however, in no instance shall the rate exceed one hundred ten percent (110%) of the average hourly rate for bargaining unit work performed by such employee for Producer over the preceding one (1) year period), unauthorized leave of absence, layoff in excess of twelve (12) months, or an absence in excess of twelve (12) months due to illness or injury. In no event may the above conditions be combined to extend the applicable period.

In hiring, layoffs and recalls, the principle of seniority shall apply as set forth below, except that where the merit and ability of one individual is, in the sole discretion of the Producer, superior to that of another individual, Producer's judgement shall prevail unless the Union can demonstrate that Producer did not reach its decision fairly and reasonably and without illegal discrimination of any kind. The concept of merit and ability includes an employee's work performance in relationship to the Producer's reasonable production standards, qualitative or quantitative. The principle of promotions from within the organization is hereby acknowledged, but this principle or the seniority principle shall not prevent the Producer from obtaining new talent.

A. Hiring, Layoffs and Recalls

1. If additional personnel are required by the Producer in any classification covered by this Agreement, the Producer agrees to give first preference of employment to persons on layoff with seniority provided merit and ability are relatively equal in the sole discretion of the Producer pursuant to the above.

2. If Producer determines that there are no qualified available persons eligible for recall under Paragraph A.1. above, the Producer agrees to give preference of employment to all qualified available persons having six (6) months or more experience in the animated cartoon industry in any job classification set forth in this Agreement, provided the merit and ability of these applicants are equal to or greater than the merits and abilities of other applicants in the sole discretion of the Producer. The Producer shall in all events exercise said discretion fairly and reasonably and without illegal discrimination of any kind.

In the event that Producer shall employ an individual pursuant to this Paragraph A.2., which individual has not had at least six (6) months' experience within Los Angeles County at the time of hire, then Producer shall furnish the Union with a summary of such employee's experience within ten (10) business days of such employee's commencement of employment. The Producer's decision in this regard shall be upheld unless the Union can demonstrate that such decision was arbitrary.

3. In the event there are insufficient available qualified persons under Paragraphs A.1. and A.2. above to meet the employment needs of the Producer in said classifications, the Producer may secure employees from any source.

4. If layoffs in personnel are effected, such layoffs shall be made in conformity with the principle of seniority provided merit and ability are relatively equal in the sole discretion of the Producer pursuant to the preamble of this Article 12. The Producer shall in all events exercise said discretion fairly and reasonably and without illegal discrimination of any kind.

5. Layoffs or reclassifications of personnel shall not result in placing unreasonable or abnormal duties or work upon any of the remaining employees.

6. If an employee is laid off, the Producer shall provide either five (5) days' notice or five (5) days' pay, provided that the layoff was not occasioned by an act of God or other occurrence beyond the Producer's control. Any weekly employee given notice as prescribed above may be laid off prior to the end of such employee's scheduled five (5) day workweek; in such event, such employee shall be paid on a pro rata basis for those days required to complete his assigned work, but in no event less than the number of days required to comply with the five (5) day notice requirement. Such notice may be given orally but must be confirmed in writing and given to the individual employee.

Without need for additional notice, Producer shall orally advise employee in the event such dismissal date is extended in order to complete an assignment. The foregoing does not affect the Producer's right to prorate payment for a partial workweek.

Any probationary employee, as defined in Article 16.A. of this Agreement, who is engaged for eight (8) or fewer weeks and who is released from employment shall not be eligible for notice or payment in lieu of notice under the terms of this provision.

B. Any alleged violation of any provision contained in this Article 12 shall be arbitrable only by Expedited Arbitration as provided herein, except where the parties shall mutually agree otherwise in writing, in which event such alleged violation may be submitted to Regular Arbitration as provided herein. However, if such alleged violation is submitted to Regular Arbitration, the authority of the Arbitrator to award any damages or remedies to the parties shall nonetheless be governed by the provisions of Expedited Arbitration below.

ARTICLE 13 (none)

ARTICLE 14. DISMISSAL PAY

A. Whenever an employee has been laid off by the Producer for more than one hundred ten (110) days and has not been offered employment by the Producer during that time and is eligible for Dismissal Pay, he or she shall be paid Dismissal Pay according to the provisions of this Article.
